BIBLIOGRAPHY OF FOREIGN BOOKLISTS

Every now and then the executive office has a request for a list of books in some specified foreign language, suitable for public libraries. These requests come principally from libraries which have a large percentage of foreign born population to cater to. A good many libraries have compiled reading lists of books in various languages which have either been printed, multigraphed or typewritten and which they would be willing to furnish to other libraries at a reasonable price. The American Library Association will be willing to compile a list of such material, which list when prepared will be printed either in the A. L. A. Bulletin or in the other library periodicals. Any public library which has lists of books in foreign languages which it has found serviceable for its own use, and which is in a position to give, loan or sell these lists to those desiring them is requested to send one copy each of all such lists to the secretary of the A. L. A. Please mark conspicuously the price or conditions on which each list may be secured, both for single copies and for 25 or more to the same address.

We wish to include in such a bibliography good reading lists in all the following languages, or any others in which lists may have been compiled: Bohemian, Chinese, Danish and Norwegian, Dutch, Finnish, French, German, Greek (modern), Hungarian, Italian, Japanese, Lettish, Lithuanian, Polish, Roumanian, Russian, Servian, Spanish, Swedish, Syriac, Turkish, Yiddish.
